THE LESSON OF THE LEAVES

Oh thou who bearest on thy thoughtful face. The wearied calm that follows after grief. See how the autumn guides each loosened leaf. To sure repose in its own sheltered place. An not forever which they in the race. Of wild forformess round the gathered sheaf. On hurrying onward in a rapture brief. Spin o er their oorlands into trackless spaces. Some hollow capture each some abeltering wall. Ar issts the wanderer on its aimless way. The autumn's pensive beauty needs them all and winter finds them warm, though sero and gray.

They have young blossoms for the spring a sweet call And shall in new leaflets for the burst of May Thomas Wentworth Higginson in The Century

Nevada Miners Dyed Green A contract has been let on the Martin White mine at Ward Nev, and work is to be resumed forthwith A queer phonomeno is connected with the working of the Martin White ore The ore is very base, and it is necessary to loast the whole of it. During the reasting process no deleteness or disagreeable fumes are no deleterious or disagreceble fumes are obse vable vet the hair and the beards of all the men engaged about the works are soon dyed a bright and permanent green. Even the evebrows of the workmen are as green as grass. In scores of Nevada mines ores of various kinds are smelted and reasted but at none of them is either the hair or beards of the workmen changed from their natural hue. It is said there is less arsenic in the ore of the Martin White than in that of many other innues. Old smelters say arsente has no minuss Old smelters say arsenic has no such effect on the hair and all declare that the emruid hue imparted to the hair is do to the presence of some unknown and mosterious metal or mineral. White, hight and saudy beards and hur take a grass green whereas black or dark brown har is dyed a deep bottle green. The hair is not my red by its change of olor. It retains its original softness and strength.

The Man of Real Porce

Contrary to general belief theu, the man of real force is never a bully is never arbitrary or unjust is never passionate though he may be and generally is aggressive and may as occas on requires give exhibitions of temper that is neverthiless kept in pertect control. Force of chiracter brings with it self reliance and in imperturbable manner. Just as the really courageous man remains evolunt heapt succession in the presence of danger the self reliant may keep his temper under provocation because he feels confidence in himself. The coward grows excited and loud monthed to conecal his real feelings. Initiated I he coward grows evented and loud monthed to conceal his real feelings. The arbitrus man accustomed to force his vi we upon others loses confidence in and control of himself when he fails to make his usual impression. It is at such a morning that are elforce of character be a morning that it is then the the self-con gins to tell it is then that the self con tained and elf respecting man dictates his terms and asserts his power—Balti

The Setworthmess of Monitors The Staworthness of Montors has been theroughly tested. The old Monad nock rounded Cape Horn in 1866 and be haved admirably in the long seas of the Pacific occas. Soon after the civil was the old Miant momoh made a cruise to Europe encountering heavy weather. The seas would come over bow and stem four fact deep at times but pass off onickly without even preventing the use quickly without even preventing the use of her guns. She rolled but 7 degrees, I have the two ships accompanying her belled 20 to 2 degrees. In the report of this cruise by Assistant Secretary Fox we find. A vessel which attacks a monitor that were more above the property were the secretary for the secretary more than the secretary for the secretary fo in a seaway must approach very close to have any chance of hitting such a low hull and even then the monitor is half the time covered up with three or four feet of water protecting herself and dis turbing her opponents fire —American

THE BLOOMINGTON TRIP. Decatur Republicans in the Great

Parade-At the Head of the Column.

Serenades by the Glee Club and Band Private Joe and Captain Rowell— Notes of the Trip

Macon county and Decatur Republicans did the square thing by Bloomington Saturday afternoon and night, and by numbers and enthusiasm demonstrated that this corner of the fourteenth disrict is alive and solid for Private Joe and Captain Rowell Hon. Jason Rogers and promised that old Macon would furaish a delegation of 500 for the Bloomington demonstration, and nearer 800 han 500 were in the Evergreen City from this section afternoon and night. The Decatur clubs represented were the Commercial Travelers' Association, whose members went up on the morning train held forth in great style at the Windsor and marched in the afternoon parade, and in the evening at 530 octock a special train of six crowded coaches-the loung Men's Republican club, with Goodman's Band, the Escort Glee club and the Es cort Drum Corps, including members of the Old Guard, the Union Veteran club, the Abraham Lancoln club, the Irish American club and the Young Ladies' Colored Republican club-left for Bloomington, arriving there it 7 40 o'clock On the way the Muroa uniformed club of 100 | in the parade, the next highest being members bourded the train, and with those who had gone up on the morning and ofternoon trains there were nearly next the Magnolias 120 next Blooming-800 people in the parade and among the spectators in Bloomington The proession was moving when the Decatur clubs arrive i, but through the clever manipulation of Captum Strange the Decatur clubs were permitted to lead the procession, marching behind the cavalry and at the head of the Peoria crowd Decatur made a magnificent showing in their neat uniforms and carrying unibrel las, and all of the boys marched with military precision, winning golden opin ions all along the route. There were other large delegations in line, but aside from the Bloomington linen duster brig-Bloomington in the decorated wagens, none in the parade of 4000 compared with Decatur and Maron in neatness of appearance, good order and enthusiasm The paride was a crasher for the Demo erats, while the decorations and illumin i tions along the streets were in keeping with the size of the crowd, estimated it 50 000 Springheld was not represented. The most elaborately decorated busi ness house in the city was that of the Dail I I antagreph on Front street one block west of the square. The entire three stories of the corner building was completely covered with flags, festoons of bunting pictures, and gluttering electric and Japanese lights, while in all the windows were placed red, white and blue paper, which added greatly to the beauty of the magnificent adornment. In front of the cut off corner entrance hung three arch lamps with red, white and blue globes, and from the flagstaff floated the stars and stripes. It was a decoration that offricted the attention of all the visitors, the Decatur clubs cheering the Partagraph as it passed Mr W O

Davis, the proprietor, and Manager Mu Umbridge have reason to be proud of the general effect ATTER THE FARADE The Decatur Glee Club visited the Pantagraph office and were received with great cordiality by Mr. Davis, Mr. McLambridge, Mr Stone and the ladies present The club give the company a neat seconde and then proceeded to the special train will leave Decatur at 6 Windsor Hotel where from an elevated position they electrified the suight; crowd by their ringing songs. The crowd cheered agun and agun, calling for more songs, until the club grew tired

IN THE PARLOR By special invitation the Club was ushered into the parlor, where Private Joe Fifer and wife, a large number of ladies and gentlemen, W W. Iracy president of the Republican State League, and Hon A J Lester were as embled The doors of the adjoining parlors were thrown open, the club sing ing under the most favorable circum stances in the presence of the distinguished party with great acceptability

During an interval Private Joe Fifer stepped forward and said Configure of the Decitar Che Club Allow in to think you person ally for your very excel antiques and also on behalf of this company for this freat And let me thank Decid it and Macor county through you for what I have been oliwas the lugest and trees demonstration n the paralete night With these words of gratitude and praise the next governor shook hands with the singers, who gave another selec ion and then departed more than de lighted with their reception Coming down the starrway the club was halted near the top by the crowd yelling No you don t, give us another song ' and they did it, keeping it up until they were shut off by the music of a band in another part of the rotunda Goodman's Band also favored the Windsor people with a selection and as usual captivated the crowd

PRIVATE JOE AND CAPT. ROWELL The Decatur Glee Club, after the parade did some good singing at the Windsor Hotel, to the great delight of the unmense crowd assembled there, and afterwards took Goodman's Band to the residence of Capt Rowell accompanied by a large part of the Decatur delegation and the Logan and Will county delegations, to serenade the popular congress man of the fourteenth district A selec tion by the band and a song by the club were answered by Capt Rowell in a few words of thanks and without further delay the party wended its way to the residence of Private Joe, near by, when the same musical programme served to call out the next governor, who was introduced by Senator Johns, and returned his thanks for the call in a very taking little speech He said the day had been about the proudest of his life and that the magnificent demonstration of the evening would not have been half so much of a success without the efforts of the three counties whose representatives were before him. He said the two months he had spent in the campaign had convinced him that not only was Illinois all right but that he felt sure of the triumph of the national ticket. He said that it departments "Peterson" is without a rival, come to the conclusion that if reforms were needed in the government the party that had manugurated and carried out all the great reforms of the last twenty-five years could be trusted to carry out all the great reforms of the last twenty-five years could be trusted to carry out all the great reforms of the last twenty-five years could be trusted to carry out all the great reforms of the last twenty-five years could be trusted to carry out all the great reforms of the last twenty-five great reforms of the last twent that they wanted in that direction fully as well as the other side. If the crimes against the freedom of the ballot were to be pumshed and the constitutional amendments made effective, the party which had written them in the constitution with the bayonet and sword could make them living realities as well at least as the party which had opposed them If tally sheet forgenes and ballot-box stuffers were to be punished the Republican party could do it more efficiently than the party which had profited by those crimes. Mr. Fifer was heartily applauded, and after cheers for him, and for Mrs Fifer, who had responded to the calls for her by making her appearance on the veranda, the party started for the WORKED LIKE A CHARM.

Wrought Steel. Malleable Iron, No Dust,

No one can say that the time was not ripe for a new furnace. The days of brittle, porous, cast iron furnaces are numbered. In everbranch of manufacture cast iron is being driven out by wrought iron and steel. Every bridge that goes down in a wreck of lives and property is found to have cast iron members. Every bursting cannon which slays its friends rather than its enemies is made of east iron. Every leaky furnace which poisons a household with its noisome gases is found to be made of the same cheap, unreliable material. Improved methods of manufacture have made steel and iron plate, of first quality, less expensive than cast iron formerly was, and it is plainly in accord with progress in other directions that there should be progress both in design and the material of furnaces for warming our homes, churches and schools.
